Journal of Chinese Overseas (JCO) is published in English twice a year in March and September. It carries academic articles on Chinese overseas worldwide as well as relevant topics on Chinese in mainland China, Hong Kong, Macau and Taiwan, such as emigrant communities in China and Chinese overseas. The journal also accepts articles on people of non-Han origin in diaspora, who can trace their ancestry to China. In addition to well-researched articles, the journal also publishes research reports and book reviews.

The first issue of this journal will be published in March 2005. We seek your support through submission of articles, subscriptions, and comments. Articles and reports submitted should follow the guidelines described below.

Information for Authors

Articles submitted to JCO should be 20-35 doubled-spaced pages in length. Where appropriate, photographs to be printed in black and white are welcome. The author's name and affiliation should appear on a separate title page only. The chief editors will arrange for each submission to be anonymously refereed by two relevant scholars. If accepted, the author will be asked to send the final revised version together with an abstract of 100-150 words, and a biodata of not more than 80 words including e-mail address, if any.

A research report should not exceed 20 pages, double-spaced, and should contain original data. Unlike a full-length article, a research report need not be presented in a clear theoretical context. Research reports will be reviewed by the chief editors, and where necessary, in consultation with a relevant member of the editorial board.

A book review should contain 1000-1,500 words.

Manuscripts should be submitted electronically if possible, as an e-mail attachment using MS Word or RTF. If submission is by regular mail, three copies of the manuscript and a disk in MS Word are needed.

Submissions and enquiry are to be sent to the chief editors: Prof. Ng Chin-keong (ngck@ntu.edu.sg) or Prof. Tan Chee-Beng (cbtan@cuhk.edu.hk). Books for review as well as submissions by postal mails should be sent to: Journal of Chinese Overseas, The Chinese Heritage Centre, 12 Nanyang Drive (Nanyang Technological University), Singapore 637 721.

Manuscript Format

Submissions should use author-date citation in the text (for example, McKeown 2001: 93-94), and provide full citation in the references. Each article should be in the sequence of main text (divided into sections), Notes, and References Cited. Other formats to observe are as follows:

Spelling: Use American spelling.

Quotation marks: Use double quotation marks for a simple quotation. For a quotation within a quotation, use single quotation marks. A comma or a period (full stop) should be placed inside quotation marks. Block quotation should be indented half an inch from the left margin. In this case, no quotation marks are necessary at the beginning and end of the quotation.

Dating: Use 17 June 2003, 100 B.C., A.D. 600, 1980s (not 1980's), etc.

Romanization and Chinese characters: Transcription of Putonghua (Mandarin) should be in Hanyu pinyin. Chinese characters may be included in the text, in parentheses following the transcription. In the case of transcription of other Chinese languages, indicate, for example, C for Cantonese, H for Hokkien (Minnanhua), etc.
